REPORT

Hemel IV left it until the last over of their league game vs WGC IV to take the win with 3 balls to go. Batting first on the Heath Park Nursery ground WGC IV only managed 186, looked upon as being a bit below par on the run paradise. Phil Driver was their main man scoring 74* and for Hemel Dil Khan (4 - 45) was amongst the wickets again with Tayyab Sadiq (2 - 14) and Dan Keene (2 - 44) picking up a couple each. In reply Hemel's top order made good, if somewhat slow, progress. 49 for Rohit Patel, 40 for Will Stokes after 31 from Mike Samueals and 29 from Nic Benson opening. Came down to Vinnie Liddar having to hit one 4 in the penultimate over and then another off the 3rd ball of the last over to win the game for Hemel IV. They ended up 5th in Div. 9A just 2 points behind 4th placed Sandridge II.
