REPORT

Beating Levy was always on the list of 'to do's' for Hemel if they were in the same division and here they did it in spades. Batting first Hem (76) and Lewis (54) put on their 4rd century opening partnership of the year in the division. Needed though as no one else stepped up to the plate, adequate but not earth shattering scores and partnerships followed. But, 254 - 9 on the board was the score to go for. They never really got going. Brett Penny (3-37) and Shidhu Kanade (1-26) took out the first 3 batsmen. Last years Levy Australian, making a nice farewell for Hemel tried to show some resistance with 33 from 31 balls but Hemel brought on their recent hero in Mukesh Bhatt who snaffled him in his first over caught by Brett Penny. Mukesh went on to take 3 - 30 from his 10 overs, Parth Mehta took 2 - 24 from 9 until Lewis Hodgins came on as 5th bowler and with his 2nd ball trapped Adam Thomas LBW and Hemel had rolled over Levy for 126 to win by 128 runs. Hemel probably 3rd in the championship, Levy relegated back down to Div. 1.
