REPORT

Bit of a drubbing for a very young Hemel 4th XI who came up against an experienced Hoddesdon III XI who had been promoted every year for the last 5 years making their way up from Regional Division A East. No more experienced than the Hoddesdon III skipper Nick Gandon with plenty of minor county experience behind him with Hertfordshire. He sat in at 5 to hold the innings together with 45*. Amongst the youngsters the leg spin of the 4th Hodgins in the form of Jacob Hodgins - 3rd son of 1st XI skipper Nick Hodgins - proved useful with 4 - 33 from 8 overs. 52 from Angus Watson at 7 for Hoddy though gave them the impetus to get to 189.

The experience on the Hemel side disappeared first ball of their reply as Hemel skipper Graham Clark was caught behind first ball. The other experience in the form of wicketkeeper and vice captain Andy Turbutt did make 20 but there was only one other double figure score, an 11 from Taia Bisgrove as Hemel subsided away to 87 all out.
