REPORT

Hastily arranged game after the original opponents, Harpenden, dropped out at short notice. Harrow St Marys, who are currently in the Middlesex County first Division, stepped in. Unfortunately, they had a very young side which Hemel saw off quite easily. Batting first Hemel bowlers, also on the young side, were able to make early inroads and Harrow St M were rescued by some latter order scores. Max Clark - son of Graham - led the way with 4 - 24 from 8 overs, followed by Jack Boughton with 3 - 23 and Ajay Savania with 2 - 20. Harrow St Marys 137 all out. In keeping with good Sunday tradition skipper Charlie Hoskins made sure that everyone got a game and those who had not bowled got a bat and everyone took part. Will Hodgins opened and ended still there on 64*. He was partnered at the close by Aaron Wilson with 38* as the pair put on 72* for the 4th wicket to see in the win ny 7 wickets.
