REPORT

2002 was the last time Hemel 1sts beat Bishops Stortford in the League over at their ground. 2009 was the last time that they beat them in the league full stop and that was at the Heath Park. Not this time around in 2020 as well as the weather had the final say. Relegated from the Premier League last year Stortford won the toss and elected to bat. The makeshift Hemel side held them down to just 204 runs with a notable first as Will Hodgins picked up his first 1st XI league wicket taking Ross Daynes caught in the slips by Brett Penny. Tight bowling by the spin pair of Parth Mehta (2 - 21) from his 9 overs and Mukesh Bhatt (1 - 25) from his 9 kept the lid on Stortfords runs. At the end Nick Hodgins was able to run through the Stortford lower order taking 4 - 41 to see them all out for 204. Then the rains came and that was that.
