REPORT

Another defeat for a young Hemel IV XI with half the side under the age of 14. Last year Hemel had lost at home to Hatfield Hyde but beat them over at there place. Only one game, and at home, this year in the curtailed season. So Hemel got the home loss out of the way. Batting first opener Chris Grey with 93 was the main man for Hatfield Hyde although Scott Davies with 46* down at 8 saw them up to a serious score of 241 - 9. 3 - 39 from Jack Boughton was the leading Hemel bowling, 2 - 37 from Callum Humphrey and 2 - 45 from Freddie Lowe coming next. The Hemel IV innings was built around 80 from wicketkeeper Andy Turbutt but, unfortunately, no-one could give the necessary support with only 23 from opener Adam Moulster being the closest. 15 from Jacob Hodgins was the next best.
