REPORT

The 3 finished games that Dunstable had played before this one they had won the toss, batted and lost. This time they did the first one right, changed to putting the opposition in, Hemel, but got the last bit right again by losing. Hemel set off with Hem Ilangaratne (87*) and Brett Penny (28) notching at 5 runs per over. 50 up in 10 overs, 100 up in 19. Added bit of oomph into the score was 55 for the 3rd wicket with Jack Doodson (30) where Hem and Jack added the runs in 62 balls. 217 - 7 in 45 overs meant Dunstable were chasing about 5 an over to gain a win. Hemel's bowlers came to the fore. Will Hodgins had figures of 5 - 2 - 9 - 0 and Steve Reader was bowled through his overs for figures of 9 - 1 - 21 - 0. The parsimonious Parth Mehta (9-3-30-1) and Mukesh Bhatt (9-1-41-1) followed through and at the halfway stage of their innings Dunstable were only 53 - 2. That then played into the hands of the experienced bowling of Brett Penny and Nick Hodgins. Brett tore through to take 5 - 51 from 8.3 overs and Nick was there with 2 - 35 as Hemel took Dunstable out for their 4th defeat.
