REPORT

Taking advantage of the neutralised effect of the league season due to the pandemic Hemel IV's continued in their attempt to 'blood' younger players into the joys (?) of Saturday Herts. League cricket. A painful process as Hemel IV's slipped to their 4th defeat out of the 4 played games. Sandridge II's appeared to be more on the ball, keeping the Hemel scoring down, Graham Perrin with figures of 8 - 5 - 3 - 1 the most impressive, with only skipper Graham Clark (17) and wicketkeeper Andy Turbutt (14) making it to double figures. Sharpness in the field by Sandridge resulted in them achieving 4 run outs. Hemel did manage to bat out their overs though with the last wicket falling in their 40th. Sandridge II made the runs in just over 20 overs. Wicket each for Martin Botha (1-12), Freddie Lowe (1-15) and Jacob Hodgins (1-2).
