REPORT

40 over friendly replacing the scheduled Chess Valley League Div. 1 game against Harrow Town. Picture of what things might be like in the league next year, if it gets started again. Harrow sent a fairly strong side with their opening three batsmen looking ominous. They all scored 50's and Hemel Sunday XI looked to be chasing a mammoth score in their 40 overs. As it was they managed to keep the Harrow score down to a quite reasonable level, 252 - 6, with 3 - 34 from skipper Charlie Hoskins keeping them under control. The chase was on but Harrow had that little bit extra in their bowling to keep Hemel just out of reach. 81 for Will Langley, following his 93 from Saturday, 41 from Aaron Wilson and 40 from Will Hodgins saw Hemel along the line but a flurry of late wickets as they chased to target meant that Hemel ended up on 206 - 8, 47 runs short of victory. Another blisteringly hot day.
