REPORT

Initially, things looked ominous for Hemel Sunday XI as Edgware turned up early and looked highly efficient in the field. Their opening bowling attack kept Hemel down to 50 - 4 from the first 20 overs, the halfway point of the innings. Then the Wilson brothers came together and things started moving for Hemel. Aaron W ended on 65* and brother Ryan was run out for 34. Together they brought the score up to 156 - 7. Not huge, but defendable. Edgware's batting did not seem to be as robust as their outward demeanour had suggested. Dan Keene removed the openers to end up on 3 - 25 from his 8 overs, Stan Hayden picked up 2 - 31, skipper Charlie Hoskins turned in 3 - 16 and at the end Ed Grayson was able to twirl out the tail to end up with 2 - 2 from 17 balls as Edgware were dismissed for 120 and a Hemel win by 36 runs.
