REPORT

A big high scoring game to finish off the league season with Hemel II's, unfortunately, just being on the wrong side of the runs to go down by 27 runs. Lutonian had the advantage of being able to play Zahid Khan (108) who had been playing as a paid player in a northern league but no longer had any games. Together with Ibrar Walayat (86) he was able to put on a big 45 over score of 269 for Lutonians. Daryll Barnett (3-47) and Dan Keene (3-64), up from the 3rd XI, were able to get amongst the wickets amid the carnage. Hemel II, naturally, took up the challenge. Neil Morgan (54) and Will Langley (44) put on 90 for the second wicket but in the end the total was too much to chase. Charlie Hoskins (30*) and Rory Fraser (21*) at the end put on 41* for the 8th wicket but Hemel ended up too short and a 5th place position in Division 3B.
