REPORT

You could say that Hemel were taking this game seriously when you have the Saturday 1st XI and 4th XI captains both appearing together with the 2nd XI vice-captain. On the other hand it was the first official Sunday game of the season so exercise was needed. As it was the Sunday skipper Charlie Hoskins found he had no wicketkeeper so had to do it himself, save bowling too many overs. H & C batted first and the young Hemel bowlers were given a good run out. Freddie Lowe had the best return with 3 - 31 from 7 overs as they all got some good early season overs in. Callum Humphries turned in 2 - 20 from 8 overs which included a stunning diving catch at mid off from Stan Hayden to remove opener Wager-Leigh. Aaron Wilson scored 48 in the reply and at 122 - 4 after 26 overs Hemel were in control. Then Max Clark (28*) and skipper Charlie Hoskins (51*) put on 74 for the 5th wicket to see Hemel home with 4 overs to spare.
