REPORT

A bit of an old Hemel players and their sons reunion in this game with Graham Clark and his son Max, Andy Turbutt and his son Dan and Duncan Howard and his son Harry on the Hemel side together with ex - long time Hemel player Brian Davies and his son Max playing for Chorleywood. Hemel batted first and Dan Turbutt came to the fore with a bit of early season batting form scoring 67*. Another returnee Paul 'Bruiser' Smith chipped in with 35 after a few years away. Duncan Howard finished off the innings destroying Max Davies figures with 20 ( 2X$, 2X6) off the last over of the 40. In reply Chorleywood II could only muster 172 - 8 as tight Hemel bowling kept the brakes on them. Best bowling for Hemel came from Jacob Hodgins, youngest son of 1st XI skipper Nick Hodgins, with 3 - 33. Martin Botha chipped in with 2 - 23 and there were wickets for Duncan Howard (1 - 25), Max Clark (1 - 28) and Harry Howard (1 - 37). A nice family win.
