REPORT

A tight encounter that went down to the penultimate ball before Knebworth Park IV secured their 3 wicket win to push them up to 2nd place in Div. 9A. Hemel batted first and the 'old timers' Graham Clark (70) and Steve Smith (71) put on 153 for the first wicket. Going for runs to build on that the wickets tumbled with only Max Clark making double figures with 18. Still 209 - 7 from 45 overs a sizeable target. Knebworth had the similar 'old timer' in Darren Hopcraft who led from the top with 75. Hemel's bowlers kept plugging away with Callum Humphreys picking up 3 - 40 but KP were just able to sneak a 4 from the penultimate ball of Callum's last over of the game to claim the victory.
