REPORT

For the first time this century Hemel had enough availability to put out 3 sides on a Sunday. Something that was a regular occurrence in the 20th century but new grounds for this. Things must be looking up. Unfortunately, at short notice the opposition proved a little too strong. Batting first Hemel made 128 from 30 overs with Vinnie Liddar leading the way with a flamboyant 34 (3X4, 2X6) and Marlon Stewart batted for a long time from no. 1 for 23. The tail fell away all too quickly as Chenies decided to finish off the Hemel innings. Skipper Adam Locke managed to spread the bowling around amongst his men and Jamie Jacobs had the joy of taking the only Hemel wicket as they lost by 9 wickets. Good day out for all at Chenies & L.
