REPORT

Fingernail chewing time for Hemel I as they managed to secure victory over Dunstable I at the last minute. On paper they won off the penultimate ball of the game although they may have had a few extra overs available having bowled through their overs quickly. Down to the oft derided 'old timers' in the side to secure the win. On the batting front Hem Ilangaratne batted through to score 114* his 9th ton for Hemel 1st XI and his 6th ton for them in the Herts. League. That set Hemel on to a score of 199 - 6 from 60 overs. Tight bowling from Ed Langley (0 - 30) and particularly Will Hodgins (0 - 9 from 6 overs) set the match for Brett Penny to come on and take 5 - 31 from 11 overs, his 5th 5fer in the Herts. League for Hemel and his 2nd in consecutive games against Dunstable. At 93 - 9 from 42 overs it looked unlikely for Dunstable. But, Ian Gilbert (68) and no. 11 Rob Simkins (5*) dug in and put on 57 for the last wicket. More importantly they used up the allotted overs and a draw was on the cards. The third 'old-timer' in the form of skipper Nick Hodgins had to show his mettle and with what was on paper the penultimate ball of the match secured an LBW decision against Ian Gilbert to gain a win by 49 runs for Hemel which had been dripping away. This win keeps Hemel in 2nd place in the Championship with an home game against leaders Bishops Stortford to come next weekend. Not to be missed I'm sure.
