REPORT

A league game at last this cricket season for Hemel IV and a victory to boot. The practice that the young element of this 4th XI learnt last year showed it had worked as Hemel scored some runs and then were able to keep Sandridge below what they required to win the match. Admittedly it was the usual 2 older players in Andy Turbutt (48) and Graham Clark (29) who scored the runs, although young Freddie Lowe chipped in with 23 to get Hemel up to 159 all out in their overs. The bowlers then did their work keeping Sandridge down to 135 - 9 in their 45 overs. Callum Humphrey took 3 - 16 from his 9 overs, Freddie Lowe 1 - 22 from his 9 and Jacob Hodgins 1 - 12 from his 5. Up and running with a win.
