REPORT

A trouncing by top of the table Bishops Stortford last week, to be understood with a weakened Hemel side. The next week Hemel managed a losing draw against bottom side Luton Town & Indians which raised them off the foot of the Championship but left Hemel in 3rd place, just a bit more distant from leaders Bishops Stortford and 2nd placed Old Owens. Putting Luton in after 20 overs Hemel were keeping them tight with their score at 63 - 2. Luton, however, had the ability in their batting to start to excelebrate their scoring rate. They had 100 after 31 overs, 150 after 41 and 200 after 53 overs. Luton's first class player Mutaza Trunkwala hit 43 from 42 balls until Brett Penny snared him with a catch to Hem Ilangaratne. Luton ended up with 253 - 8 from their 60 overs and the high spots for Hemel were Ed Langley taking a wicket with his first ball and first timer Alfie Bordoley taking his first 1st XI Herts League wicket removing the Luton captain Dhruv Patel, again caught in the safe hands of Hem Ilangaratne. Hemel struggle a bit in their run chase and after 10 overs were on 40 - 0 but after 20 overs were only 63 and had lost 3 wickets. In a combination of going for batting points and holding the team together Jack Doodson scored his first league 50 for a few years with 57. Trunkwala came in for Luton with 3 wickets after the middle and Hemel were left hanging on after 58 overs at 187 - 9.
