REPORT

Back to the 50 over games for the end of the season and an understrength Hemel side went down to Flitwick by 47 runs. One of the pluses of the game was that Adam Moulster was able to play out last over from Flitwick and acquire the 6 runs necessary to push Hemel to 150 - 9 and an extra batting point. After 35 overs Hemel had Flitwick at 139 - 7 but their no. 8 Carl Ferguson ( 40*) then proceeded to put on another 58 runs with the last 3 batsmen to push their total up to 197 until Brett Penny removed their no. 11 batsman. Hemel's innings never really got going and at the halfway stage of 25 overs their score was 61 - 1, wickets in hand but behind the run rate. Trying to push the rate brought the clatter of wickets and in the next 15 overs Hemel scored 47 runs but lost 4 more wickets. Brett Penny hit the top Hemel score with 36 from opening, drafted in Phil Costardv next with 22 from no. 7 and U - 14 young cricketer Freddie Lowe brought in from the 4th XI hit 10 at no. 8. An interesting 1st XI Herts. League debut no doubt. Hemel remain in 4th place in the Championship.
