REPORT

A rain effected game which meant it was reduced to 37 overs per side. After 23 of their lot the game looked up for Hemel as their score was 98 - 6. Skipper Hem was still there and newcomer to the 1st XI league side Sam Wheeler came in. They proceeded to put on a 7th wicket partnership of 89 in 12 overs which pushed Hemel closer to chasing the total down. Unfortunately, Hem was bowled by the Dunstable captain Matt Woodcock for 78 in the 35th over and next over Parth Mehta was dismissed. Last over and Sam Wheeler was run out on a suicide run for 37. Left to Charlie Hoskins to hit the last ball for 6 to finish the came with Hemel short of the required runs needed.

A bit of a ramshackle Hemel side with only 6 of the regular side playing debutants drafted up from lower sides. One great event was usual, this season, 4th XI bowler Freddie Lowe taking his first 1st XI league wicket when dismissing Terry Carr of Dunstable.

1st XI still 4th in the Championship but next week face a trip over to leaders Bishops Stortford which is never a great chance of a win.
