REPORT

After several weeks at no.3 in the Championship Hemel are finally demoted to no.4 by having a rained-off game against Shenley Village and Flitwick beating Old Owens to jump up from 4th to 3rd. Hemel, having won the toss and batted, were in trouble after 4 balls when the always dependable Hem Ilangaratne was dismissed for a duck. Cometh the need, cometh the Tom Elborn, who batting at 3 was 74* when the game was called off after 32 overs. In that time he had put on 70 for the 2nd wicket with Ed Langley (27) and was in a partnership of 68* for the 3rd wicket with Jack Doodson (24*). But that was the end of things for the day.
