REPORT

Weather had the final say as Hemel battled out a winning draw against Langleybury. Put in Hemel started off hesitantly and were 73 - 4 at the lunch break. The 2 men in were Jack Doodson and Will Kriehn. They proceeded to put on a 4th wicket partnership of 162 with Jack scoring 122 (15 X 4 and 2 X 6) and Will getting out on 96 (7 X 4, 2 X 6) missing out on his first Hemel 1st XI league century. The days rain meant that the players were in & out of the pavilion so Hemel declared early to give themselves time to bowl Langleybury out. Once Parth Mehta (3 - 25) had broken the 2nd wicket stand the wickets started to fall. But the weather was always a factor and with numerous on & off routines the game was finally ended as a winning draw for Hemel at 7.10pm.

REPORT

Another defeat for Hemel III which puts them perilously close to the drop from Div.6A. In 7th place with just 10 points between the bottom 4 sides. A win could be the answer. Put in Hemel were skittled out for just 58 by Clifton with only Phill Smith (22) and Will Stokes (10) making double figures. It then took Clifton just 9 overs to tap off the runs with Ajay Savania taking the only wicket for Hemel.
