REPORT

A defeat to Southgate Adelaide in a rain effected game was not good news for Hemel II. Southgate A still in the last relegation slot but only 28 points behind Hemel who are in 7th place in Div. 3B. Lutonian at home next week who have already secured promotion then last game at Wheathampstead which might be a necessary win. In this game Southgate won the toss and batted in a 34 over aside game. Tariq Mahmood scored 91 to give them a good score helped by 42 from Joe Coglan. For Hemel opener Arsalan Rashid showed his worth with the ball as well taking 4 - 35. His opening skills also came into play as he too scored 91. "5 from Tom Waterton and 24 from Salim Farooqi kept it going but Hemel ended on 216 - 8 13 runs behind.
