REPORT

A rain induced loss for Hemel II's although it was looking on the cards anyway before the heavens opened. Put in by Bayford they started off struggling , 52 - 3 at the halfway point, and only marginally recovered. Charlie Hoskins top scored with 35 at no. 7 and Aaron Wilson made 32. Three teens scores with 19 from Shafi Uddin and Stan Hayden with 12 from Tom Waterton but no more. Ex Hertford and Hertfordshire all rounder Cliff Cavener opened the batting and was 54* at the end, rain from 4.00pm saw it all over and Hemel had gone down.
