REPORT

As ever Hemel like to make things difficult for themselves. A win against, at the time, bottom placed Harrow Town would have guaranteed Hemel remaining in Div. 1 of the Chess Valley League. But no, they went and lost. Hemel still have a game to play, at home to UCS Old Boys on 5th Sept but, more importantly, Harrow Town and Brrodesbury who are both below Hemel are playing next Sunday so Hemel could still be safe. That apart, the cricket. Hemel batted first and whilst everyone seemed to get in no-one went on to notch a match winning score. Matt Dale (35), Ryan Wilson (27) and brother Aaron Wilson (24) made it into the 20's but the rest was teens scores as Hemel ended on 178 - 9. Harrow had a man in Nagajaran who came in at no. 3 and scored 73* to see them through. 41 from T Silva and 31* from M Shaffi were the scores that were needed. Alfie Bordoley with 3 - 30 was the best Hemel bowler as Harrow won by 5 wickets with 6 overs to spare.
