REPORT

Although the Sunday 1st XI Chess Valley league game was called off at the Hemel ground after late night Saturday and early Sunday morning rain the Hemel Sunday 2nd XI were able to continue their forays up to Ivinghoe & Pitstone for a 35 over friendly. Captain Tony Linfoot won the toss and batted. He and Phil Smith put on 76 for the first wicket, both scoring 30 but both getting out close together. Ravi Hindocha took up the challenge and scored 47* to put Hemel up to 180 - 4. Ajay Savania and Callum Humphreys quickly removed the I & P openers but then their fight back began. Jacob Hodgins (2-32), Pratic Dutta (2 - 9) and Callum Humphreys (2 - 29) picked up a couple of wickets each but I & P held their nerve to win by 3 wickets off the penultimate ball of their 35.
