REPORT

Lost the last league game of the season last year to Wheathampstead which was the only time Hemel hadn't beaten them in league games since they started playing them in 2017. Back to the normal routine with this game and victory for Hemel 2nd XI by 37 runs. Should have been by more but Steve Booth (38*) and George Jarvis (12) were allowed to put on 50 for the no. 11 wicket until Ed Langley up rooted Jarvis' stumps. Put into bat Hemel II saw opener Aaron Wilson carry on good form from last year with 67 and up through the ranks Freddie Lowe hit 42 from 37 balls in the middle order. 218 was always too many for Wheathampstead to chase and with Will Hodgins taking out their first 3 batsmen in the first 10 overs it was always going to be a struggle. Will ended up with 4 - 42 from his 10 overs and skipper Charlie Hoskins turned in 3 - 30 from his 10 to keep them down. But then a 50 run partnership for the 10th wicket took the game into the 49th over, but Hemel II still won.
