REPORT

Whilst the Sunday 1st XI were travelling over to Hertford for a bit of a non-game Hemel Sunday 2nd XI and Edgware II were able to lay on a 40 over feast for the Sunday crowds at the Heath Park. Batting first in the 40 over friendly Hemel built an innings around 62 from Nikhail Singh with contributions of 38 from Rohit Patel, 31 from Nehal Patel and 25* from Mark Pearce the main contributors. 197 - 7 set the mark. Off Edgware went and they chased it all the way. 41 from Rahill Kothari their skipper aided by 40 from Kishan and 38 down the order from Ananya Dixit. Notable for Hemel along the way was that Phil Smith behind the stumps took 6 catches, a wicketkeeping rarity these days at Hemel. Rashil Dodia returned 3 - 32 and at the top of the bowling Vinnie Liddar 2 - 36 and Dil Khan 2 - 38. Despite the heroics of Edgware no.11 with 17* Hemel just held on to win by 7 runs with an enthralled crowd on a warm Sunday.
