REPORT

Couple of defeats for Hemel Ists thankfully did not become a major blip in their march to promotion as they returned to winning ways, defeating Reed at their ground. With a return to what is called 'normal' cricket for half the season Hemel batted first and made 181 before they were bowled out in their 59th over. Hem Ilangaratne led from the top making 67 with 10 X 4 and 1 X 6. Jack doodson made 34 in the middle with Brad Finch 25 the other over 20 scorer. Hem and Jac put on 71 for the 4th wicket. Not a vast score to defend but Hemel had the bowling for the task. After 22 overs they ha Reed at 76 - 6 with Parth Mehta having taken 3 of the wickets.Parth ended up with 3 - 27 from 18 overs and Matt Parkins was there to take up the next 3 to end up with 4 - 41 from his 14 overs. Whilst James Heslam dug his heels in for 50* from 107 balls Hemel were able to bring back Billy Jones to castle Reed no. 11 for 4 to give Hemel a victory by 18 runs and a move back up to 3rd in the Championship with a home fixture against leaders Old Owens next week.
