REPORT

Rather a mismatch as as rather strong, certainly on the batting front, London Maccabi Vale II overcame the Hemel Sunday II XI in their Chess Valley League game by 108 runs to take their 4 points. Batting first their opener Elliot Boardwell retired on 100, skipper Chico Hillman hit 75 before snaffled by opposite number Adam Locke and Harry Brand finished on 52*. For Hemel Dil Khan bowled his full 10 overs and took 2 - 57.

Hemel started off brightly with them reaching 40 in the first 6 overs thanks to Dil Khan's rapid 27. Then the wheels came off rather opener Irfan Khalifa made 46, no. 4 Max Clark 25 but it was left to Adam Locke at 6 to plug away for 50* as the rest of the batting subsided. Phil Smith made 18 and Harry Howard hit a bright 11 at the end but it was left to Jack Boughton to go in a block out the last ball to ensure Hemel Sunday II had made over 200 and were not all out.
