REPORT

One of the key things about being 4th XI captain at Hemel is knowing who you have lurking in the wings for pot 'big' occasions. This game was one such occasion with first placed Hemel IV playing second placed Bamville, a ground, Bamville being the only side that had beaten Hemel in the first game of the league season. Batting first Bamville made a creditable 191 all out in their 40 overs and there were a couple of wickets each for Callum Hur (2 - 24), Jacob Hodgins (2 - 39) and called up Matt Judd (2 - 35) and Cameron Hutcheon (2 - 51). For the battin knowing to call up another Phil Smith, (aka. Bruiser), who opened at hit 58. Regular high scorer Matt Petchell hi and Hemel were able to gain revenge for their early season loss and win by 5 wickets with 4 balls to spare. In th process opening up a 20 point gap at the top between them and 2nd placed Bamville.
