REPORT

At last a win in the Chess Valley League Div.4 for Hemel Sunday 2nd XI at the 4th time of asking. Of course not without its own problems. Old Haberdashers scored their innings via the system called play-cricket and the numbers ended up not matching. 19 was the overall difference and to their credit Hemel allowed the higher score of 195 - 9 to stand for the score. Might have been different if Hemel had failed to reach it, but there we are. 3 wickets for Harry Howard (3-68) to go with his 30 runs the day before for Hemel V, 2 - 27 for Dil Khan and 2 - 30 for Callum Humphrey. The Hemel batsmen then set about their chase and most contributed. 35 from Matt Scears, 32 from Adam Locke as the captain and V-C contributed, 26 from Philip Smith opening and then Tom Willetts (22*) and Dil Khan (26*) put on 34* for the 7th wicket as Dil finished things with a 6 into Station Road. Just under 8 overs to spare.
