REPORT

Managed to dig themselves out of a hole by getting a draw against 2nd placed Shenley Village. Looked at several instances they might lose the game which would have been disasterous for promotion chances but a draw meant they are now 24 points behind Shenley as opposed to the 18 points behind of last week. Not out of the woods yet. Batting first Shenley were kept to a rate of 3 an over at their halfway point, 92 - 2 from 30 overs. They put the foot down from then on and reached 246 - 8 from their 60 overs. Lewis Hodgins picked up more wickets this week with 4 - 73 and Parth Mehta returned 2 - 80 as both bowled 18 overs each. The start of the Hemel reply was a bit of a catastrophe with them reaching 32 - 4 after 16 1/2 overs with Shenley opening bowler Kris Nissen turning in 3 - 14 from 8 1/2 overs. Jack Doodson (45) and Tom Elborn (76) put on 100 for the 5th wicket but after Anwar had dismissed them both it was dig in heels time. Other opener Mohammed Shafiq removed Matt Parkins and Parth Mehta in his last, the penultimate over and it was down to skipper Nick Hodgins to see out the last over from Nissen to snaffle the draw.
