REPORT

Were able to play a friendly against St Albans V last week at home so made sense to have the reverse of that fixture the following week over at St. A. And another victory for Hemel V. Good start with Colin Willetts (33) and Teddy Butler (24) putting on 63 for the first wicket. On the way down the order Jim Langley added 28 and Harry Howard ended up not out on 23. 151 to defend for Hemel and sharp fielding proved to be the key as 3 St. A. Batsmen were run out, including their two openers. Add onto those a couple of wickets each for Matt Scears (2 - 12) and Tayyab Sadiq (2 -21) and Hemel achieved victory by bowling out St. A for 135 in 30 overs.
