REPORT

As seems to be the case with these North London sides in the CVL Div.1 they just seem to be too strong for the Hemel Sunday sides. Early season thumping by Brondesbury, last week home defeat to Harrow Town and again this week another trouncing by South Hampstead at home. Batting first Hemel had to rely on their middle order to put together a good score. Adam Moulster (76) and Ryan Wilson (27) put on 95 for the 5th wicket to get Hemel up to 157. Then Charlie Hoskins (47) saw the tail through to a total of 211 all out for Hemel with 5 overs to spare. All the S Hampstead batsmen got themselves in and scored runs quickly. Masum Ahmed (60*) held it all together as S Hams got to 214 - 6 in just 31 overs. They move into 2nd place in CVL Div.1 with just one game to play against Holtwhites Trinibis while leaders, the unbeaten Harrow Town, have 2 games to go. Hemel's last game next week at Amersham, just looking to avoid relegation.
