REPORT

Expected defeat to already champions Old Owens was no great surprise and has, effectively, put Hemel I out of the hoped for promotion to the Premier Division. Second placed Shenley Village are at home to third placed Flitwick next weekend a win for either should just about do it. Hemel have home game against Dunstable next week and final week visit to Wardown Park where Luton Town & Indians could be trying for a last hopeful victory to avoid relegation. Having said that Hemel bowled quite well against Old Owens keeping them to 202 - 7 from their 50 overs with the guile of Parth Metha taking 3 - 31 from his 10 overs and the Hodgins pere et fils taking the other with Nick 2 - 50 and Lewis 1 - 24. One of Old Owens strengths this season has been defending not too high scores and they did it here again as after 5 overs they had removed 4 of the first 5 Hemel batters and Hemel were 14 - 4. Only 3 Hemel batsmen managed it to double figures. Brett Penny, the remaining no.3 top scored on 37 until he was the 8th wicket to fall, Tom Waterton made 22 until stumped by Chris Palmer and Billy Jones made it to 16. After that not a lot as Hemel were all out for 99 in 34.3 overs.
