REPORT

Victory at home to Cockfosters I for Hemel II to keep them in the 2nd promotion slot in Div.3B with 2 games to go. Away at Reed II next week and home to Sandridge in the last game for Hemel. Now 4th placed London Colney have an away game at already relegated Bayford next week and then home game against already champions Old Finchleians in their last game. New no. 3 Wheathampstead have away against Sandridge and home against Bayford last game so may be the side to keep an eye on. 19 points the difference with 2 games to go so wins are order of the day. In this game Hemel II struggled a bit with the bat and were thankful for 89 from Ed Langley (13X4, 3X6) as he scored over half of the runs that Hemel managed 162 - 10. As with 1st XI only 2 other double figure scores with 14 from Ryan Wilson and 11 from Ben Mannering. But it was the Hemel bowling that proved the key again. Charlie Hoskins and Suren Perera both bowled their full 10 overs and both took 4 wickets. Charlie 4 - 17 and Suren 4 - 10. Ben Mannering was brought on at the end and cleared out the tail with 2 - 13.
