REPORT

Agonising close defeat for Hemel III as they lost by one wicket off the last ball of the game. Put in by KP Hemel got off to a good start with Philip Smith (30) and Nikhil Singh (34) putting on 70 for the first wicket in the first 12 overs. Further momentum was maintained with 21 fro Scott Radcliffe, 45 from Freddie Lowe and a run a ball 42 from skipper for the day Adam Moulster. 240 - 9 from their 50 overs setting a target of just under 5 an over for KP. They must have known their batting strength as despite a few low scores they chased the total down to the end. Opener and skipper Mark Woods hit 54 from 60 balls and then down at no.7 Robert Morley hit 87 from 68 balls. Ajay Savania tried to hold things up for Hemel with 4 - 42 from his 10 overs and Dil Khan managed 2 - 33 from his 10. But in the end KP were able to just get over the line from the last ball.

Hemel III 22 points off the relegation placeof Radlett IV.Hemel at Watton-at-Stone next week needing at least 8 points to be sure. Radlett at Berko II, Letchworth at league winners Old Owens and KP and WGC III play each other so should be safe.
