REPORT

Win on the last league game of the season which leaves Hemel I in 4th place in the Championship. Batting first Hemel made it to 234 in one shy of their 50 overs a total which had looked likely to be higher but they managed to loss their last 6 wickets for just 5 runs going from 229 - 4 to 234 all out in 3 overs. Earlier Lewis Hodgins had scored 64 and with Brett Penny (55) had put on 128 for the 2nd wicket. As ever, in these circumstances, the Hemel bowlers came through. Billy Jones (3 - 32) and Matt Parkins (2 - 24) both bowled their 10 overs through and Luton were 59 - 5 after the 20. Then came U-15 Freddie Lowe playing his first 1st XI Herts League match of this season and turning in figures of 4 - 15 from 5.4 overs. Brad Finch with 1 - 20 from his 5 was quite quiet in comparison. Luton bowled out for 94 in 30.4 overs and they ended bottom of the Championship.
