REPORT

A win off the last game of the season for Hemel III which secured their place in the middle of the Herts League Div. 6A. Watton won the toss and batted, starting off quite comfortably. But the Hemel bowlers kept plugging away and in the seam of Dil Khan (5 - 40) and spin of Ed Grayson (4 - 20) they kept them well under control and took wickets. Watton managed to get to 167 in nearly their 50 overs and left Hemel with a target to chase. And chase it they did. Philip Smith started off at the top with 35 and Scott Radcliffe came in at 4 to score 40. The pair put on 83 for the 3rd wicket. Hemel were ahead of the overs but kept on losing wickets. When Scott Departed with the score 149 it took a couple of Dil blows from the bat of Dil Khan to edge closer before Sam Wheeler (4*) and Martin Botha (2*) saw hemel over the line.
