REPORT

Finally some League cricket as Hemel 1st XI got their campaign for 2023 going with a win against Preston. A to be expected win one would have thought since they have beaten Preston each time they have played them since they made the Championship in 2020, apart from a strange defeat at Hemel last year. Put in by Preston Brett Penny (17) and Matt Parkins (42) put on 52 for the first wicket. Skipper Hem Ilangartne scored 43 (5X4, 2X6) and Hemel moved along comfortably at 4 an over. Ed Pike added a run a ball 26 (2X4,1X6) at the end. Not a monumental score but early season and large scores have not come to Hemel up at Preston over the couple of years we have played them. Last year Darren James returned 6 - 63 as he blew Preston away. This year only 2 - 23 but took out the two openers and only went for 2 an over in the retracted game. Keeping it tight was the name of the game for the Hemel bowlers as Billy Jones (3 - 31), Parth Mehta (2 - 26) and Matt Parkins (1 - 31) all kept the scoring rate below the required 4 an over. As the required scoring rate rose so Preston tried more dangerous attempts resulting in a couple of run outs. In the end a 7 run victory was a little flattering to Preston but 25 league points were in the bag for Hemel.
