REPORT

Not one of Hemel's favourite sides in terms of results are Flitwick. In the last 5 years of games we have managed 2 wins to go with 5 defeats and 2 draws - remember them ? Now another home defeat which makes the home record 4 defeats and one win over the last 5 years. Things looked promising for Hemel as Brett Penny (29) and Tom Elborn (28) put on 63 for the first wicket. But then only Billy Jones (31) and Ed Pike (35) managed double figures as the Flitwick bowlers tied Hemel down and they were all out for 159 in only 40 overs of their allocated 50 in this form of the game. George Thurstance, a constant thorn in Hemel's side over the years set off like a train hitting 39 in 29 balls. That put Flitwick in the driving seat and though Darren James (3 - 32) and Parth Mehta (2 - 20) were able to put the brakes on the Flitwick scoring they always had overs to spare. At 106 - 6 at the halfway stage of their innings Hemel were in with a chance but a rapid 19 from 16 balls by no. 8 Maicol Javed put Flitwick back in front and they were able to play their way cautiously to a 2 wicket win with 14 1/2 overs to spare.
