REPORT

First game in the Chess Valley League Div.1 last year for Hemel was against Brondesbury at their place. That had been a thumping for us with them getting 293 - 5 and bowling us out for 94. Bit more of a game this time around. Brondesbury scored their usual 6 1/2 an over against us with opener J Parmar hitting 101 in no time at all and N Puri looking on the way to another century score in the innings until Billy Jones snared him for LBW on 99. Billy ended with 4 - 60 and the leggies of young Jacob Hodgins picked up 3 - 40 from his 10 overs. Hemel decided that they had to attack the score and made a notable fist of it scoring at 6 runs an over to end up on 257 all out to lose by 34 runs. Combined score of 548 runs more than several of the hemel sides from Saturday added together. Aaron Wilson led the way from the top with 72, eager to prove those who claim he can only score runs on Sundays right, Billy Jones hit 59, Will Hodgins 36 and Ed Pike, stupid boy, 32. Always was going to be an off chance of getting there but a credible run chase in an entertaining game. Last year Hemel finished 3rd in the CVL and Brondesbury 5th so first game never tells.
