REPORT

At least some cricket over the weekend after Saturday was a complete washout. Away game for Hemel Sunday 2nd XI their first in the Chess Valley League campaign. Beat Harefield last year over at their ground and did again this year. Last year the arm of Jacob Hodgins was the weapon as he picked up 5 - 43. At it again this year, not quite as good, as he picked up 4 - 28, but good enough. Their skipper Jim Hamilton led the way with 73 at the top but Jacob and Stan Hayden (3 - 30) were too much for them as they bowled them out for 163. Ravi Hindocha scored 64 from the top last year, this year he only managed 30 but after a few batting wobbles Billy Jones (68*) and Will Hodgins (42*) saw Hemel home to 169 - 4 in 40 overs and 4 CVL points.
