REPORT

First run out for a Hemel 5th XI in league cricket since 2014 as the availability of young talent called for it. Unfortunately, not a winning start as West Herts similarly have available talent and this was their 6th XI. Put in by West Herts, Hemel struggled to get their innings going due to damp conditions and tight, accurate bowling from West Herts. Only skipper Martin Botha (35*) and Ashray Shah (25) were able to make meaningful scores and Dan Turbutt (12) was the only other batsman to make it to double figures. Shakir Badurdeen was the star for West Herts bowling 8 overs and taking 3 - 11. Badurdeen was to star with the bat as well for West Herts, coming in at no.8 and hitting 2 X 6s to wrap up the game for West Herts in only 32 overs. Couple of wickets each for Miles Barnard (2 - 15) and Tayyab Sadiq (2 - 21) but Hemel V were on the losing side in the end.
