REPORT

6 Leg Byes

Things looking up for Hemel on the player front when not only in the year they are able to relaunch their 5th XI in the Herts League but also are able, 3 weeks into the league season, able to arrange a friendly fixture for a 6th XI. Neil Morgan in his role as Juniors Manager was able to skipper a side aided by a capable ally in Marlon Stewart. Unfortunately, as with the 5th XI the other week against West Herts VI XI, other clubs also have strength in available young players. St Albans V Xi batted first and put together an imposing score of 242 - 6 in their 40 overs. Jonah Lewis was the best Hemel bowler with 2 - 22 and there were wickets also for Farhan Sadiq (1 - 22) and James Lewis (1 - 22). When it came to the Hemel batting St albans bowlers proved in a different class. Hemel were dismissed in 26 overs for just 81 with Neil Morgan (56) and Ashaz Ahmed (16) the only double figure scorers. The 2 did lay claim to a partnership of 58 for the 8th wicket to claim some respectability for the Hemel side. Onwards & upwards.
