REPORT

Not the greatest of ways to start your new season by being bowled out for under 50, but 'needs must' as they might say West Herts obviously knew the state of their wicket as they inserted Hemel to bat, having won the toss, and then struggled to 49 - 5 in reply. All the makings of an early season game. Only Phil Costard (16) and Brett Penny (13) made it to double figures for Hemel in their batting but the highlight of the day was young Jacob Hodgins - 3rd son of now retired 1st XI captain Nick Hodgins - taking his first 2 1st XI wickets for Hemel and among them West Herts overseas player Kumar Saraj who he had caught for 5. At least a game played with all the rained off games at the start of this season.
