REPORT

The problem Hemel 1st XI seem to have had this year is that their batting & bowling don't seem to operate in tandem. Either the bowling works and the batting lets them down or vice versa. This was apparent here in their game against newly promoted Redbourn where the batting certainly worked as Hemel scored 297 - 5 in their 60 allowed overs. Redbourn, having been 109 - 7 at the start of the last hour were able to play out for a draw with 184 - 9. In fact Hemel took 2 of the required wickets in the first 4 overs so the last pair for Redbourn put on 69* in 14 overs to secure the draw. Earlier Hemel, having been put in, started off with Brett Penny (93) and Hemel Jayasinghe (48) putting on 116 for the first wicket in 24 overs and then Billy Jones came in at 3 and scored his first century for the season with 102* hitting the last over to bring it up. When bowling Hemel took the initiative with Will Hodgins (2 - 13), Parth Mehta (2 - 21) and Matt Parkins (2 - 47) each picking up a couple of wickets. But Hemel proved incapable of taking the last wicket and despite using 9 different bowlers had to settle for a winning draw when the win was there for the taking.
