REPORT

After a couple of defeats Hemel III were back into the winning groove with what proved to be a narrow(ish) 14 run over Knebworth Park II. Batting first on the Nursery Ground and after a few early wicket loses, Hemel built their innings around young Max Clark who hit a masterful 70* with 8X4s. Further down the order Adam Moulster (45), 8X4s and Andy Turbutt 47* 7X4s saw the overall score up to 231 - 6 from their 50 overs. KP II got off to a solid start from the top and it took the introduction of the spin of Ed Grayson (2 - 25) to get them both out and keep the score at 78 - 2. Further spin in the form of Jemion Jacobs took out the middle of the KP innings as he took 4 - 29. The KP tail then waggled with no.9 Jack Randall hitting 47 until Freddie Lowe was able to bowl him going for one too many and Hemel were able to secure the 30 points. As with Hemel II next weeks fixture is against the league leaders, this time at Lutonian II.
