REPORT

Crunching defeat for Hemel V by Tring Park IV to the tune of 125 runs. Game changed to Sunday to suit Trings ground availability but did not appear to to Hemel too many favours. Winning the toss and naturally batting on a blazing hot day, opener Rob Grout took full advantage to score 107. 65* from Jeff de Silva at no.5 saw Tring get to a score of 284 - 4 from their 40 overs. Not up near the top of Div.11W for nothing one suspects. Harry Howard led the Hemel wickets with 2 - 36 from his 8 overs and there was one each for skipper of the day Tayyab Sadiq (1 - 28) and Aarav Patel (1 - 32) who at least bowled Grout for 107. Hemel were always going to struggle to match such a huge score in 40 overs. The elder Phil Smith who was keeping wicket opened and stayed there for 48 until 7th out with the score on 133. Lutero Corrigan continued his recent run scoring with 32 and Sabih Amin also made 32. With Rich Abslom picking up 3 - 8 in 2 overs at the end at least Hemel V can say they were not bowled out, only losing 9 wickets, 125 runs short but only 9 down.
